MIT Concert Band
Spring Concert
Tuesday, May 15, 2018; 7:00 pm
MIT Kresge Little Theater
Conducted by Thomas Reynolds and Collin Myers

Free to the public. Refreshments after the concert!

Featuring the world premiere of Sinfonietta, commissioned from MIT Music Professor Peter Child by the MIT Concert Band, and Frank Ticheli’s new composition, Acadiana, jointly commissioned by MetWinds, University of Massachusetts New England Youth Wind Ensemble, and the MIT Concert Band.

Sinfonietta .......................................................... Peter Child
Acrostic Song .....................................................David Del Tredici
Occident and Orient ............................................Camille Saint-Saëns
Acadiana .............................................................Frank Ticheli
Symphony in B♭ ..................................................Paul Hindemith
Fantasies on a Theme by Haydn ..............................Norman Dello Joio

For more information about the MIT Concert Band, please visit band.mit.edu or email bavicchi-lives@mit.edu. We always welcome new members! We do not require auditions to join, and can lend instruments to members who need them.